

System Failures and Legal Struggles

My name is Ricky Stebbins. I built this to expose the truth no one recorded. I was abused, ignored, misdiagnosed, and erased by the systems meant to protect me. This archive exists because I refused to be forgotten. It's not for healing. It's not for pity. It's evidence. It's survival. If I disappear, this stays. Every failure, every lie, every silence, I kept the receipts. Now they're all here. Documented. Permanent.

Legal System Issues and Contacts Index

System Failures and Legal Struggles

I created this legal system and complaint list index to keep track of all of the different issues I've had within the state of Massachusetts and how I've been trying to deal with them.

This connects to my life story through the Memory Ark link to your right.

I will try to give a brief summary here and then a better summary within each of these entries as they're filled with information.

Judicial Conspiracy and the Collapse of Due Process

In 2013, I was struck by a car while walking through a parking lot. Despite being injured, responding officers denied me medical attention. I went to trial without legal representation and was found guilty. Afterward, I discovered that the case had been mishandled at multiple levels. The officers involved were Thomas Sheehan and Thomas Douglas. The prosecutor was Assistant District Attorney Katherine Johnston with the help of Edward Kavari. The presiding judge was Bildo Hadley, and the court's head clerk was Jon Gay. Several attorneys either mishandled my case or refused to represent me, including Randy Milo, Eric Applebaum, Anna Levine, John Nolan, and Elaine Pourinski. I submitted complaints and outreach to numerous oversight bodies, including the Massachusetts State Police, the FBI, the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, the U.S. Department of Justice, the Governor's Office, and the Board of Bar Overseers. None of these institutions took corrective action. This case illustrates systemic failure across local law enforcement, prosecution, the judiciary, legal defense, and state and federal oversight agencies.

Malicious Neglect of Disabled Adults

In October 2021, I was accused of assault. I was appointed Attorney Roger Banks, who laughed off serious claims of Disabled person abuse within the household where my ex's son was living—ignoring concerns that should have triggered a mandatory report. Attorney O'Doherty followed and attempted a trial by surprise, deliberately pushing for court proceedings before I had proper access to case materials. After that, Attorney Bergo stalled the case for months and forced a baseless competency evaluation, further delaying my defense. During this period, I submitted formal emails and requests to preserve police body camera and dash cam footage related to the incident. Despite this, ADA White misrepresented the availability of this evidence in court and actively obstructed access to the official policies and procedures governing footage retention. Attorney McGinty, who was later assigned, failed to challenge any of these procedural violations. Attorney Grady took over after that and treated the case dismissively, ignoring critical developments and acting incompetent throughout. This case was dragged out for over three and a half years. Only when I personally uncovered physical evidence confirming my account did the court dismiss the charges. At no point did any legal representative act with integrity, nor did the court enforce accountability for the lies, delays, or mishandled evidence.

Complaint Contact List: A Record of Warnings, Silence, and Complicity

 Complaint Contact Link

Over the course of several years, I contacted dozens of individuals and agencies across local, state, and federal levels. Each contact was made in good faith, to report serious misconduct, legal violations, or systemic failures. These included incidents of abuse, evidence suppression, prosecutorial misconduct, and institutional negligence. Most of the people on this list ignored the complaints entirely. Others responded with empty acknowledgments or vague referrals that led nowhere. In some cases, complaints were quietly closed without investigation, or redirected to the very departments accused of wrongdoing. This log exists as a record that these warnings were given. If action was not taken, it was not because the problem was hidden. It was because the people responsible for oversight chose not to act.

Commonwealth Care Alliance: Failure to Provide Essential Mental Health Care

Commonwealth Care Alliance: Negligence case

Commonwealth Care Alliance repeatedly failed to provide adequate support during critical periods of mental health need. Despite my eligibility and urgent circumstances, CCA delayed or denied care approvals, failed to follow up on referrals, and ignored multiple requests for assistance. Their handling of my case shows a pattern of systemic negligence, especially in situations where clear documentation of trauma, legal stress, and medical complications was already on file. At no point did CCA offer meaningful coordination between providers or advocate on my behalf. They treated serious, time-sensitive conditions like routine paperwork, and as a result, I was forced to manage complex medical and psychiatric issues without support. These failures were not isolated—they reflect deeper institutional problems within CCA's approach to vulnerable populations.

I am currently working on my victim witness statement related to the April 4, 2025 attack on Fox Road. I have chosen to write this myself, with AI support, because I do not trust the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to handle my case fairly or accurately.

The same institutions now claiming to represent me—the district attorney’s office, the courts, and state-funded programs—are the ones that ignored or suppressed evidence in my previous cases. Their failure to preserve dash cam and body cam footage, their pattern of stalling or misrepresenting the facts, and their documented history of treating victims like criminals leave me with no confidence in their ability to advocate for my safety or speak on my behalf.

This statement will be completed independently, documented in full, and released publicly to ensure that no one has the power to distort or bury what happened.
